Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Our beloved Queen has not been feeling strong and has received advice to rest but the one event she will not miss is Remembrance Sunday and her visit to the Cenotaph in London. She will mark the sacrifice of those who have died to bring freedom to the world, to our country. Let us join her in thought and prayer this weekend.

Our Masses will be marked with a minute of silence to begin and our thoughts and prayers will ascend to heaven for their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed. At the same time we will pray for peace, peace in the world, peace among individuals and peace within our own hearts and minds.

Keep in your prayer Pat Merry whose funeral takes place this week!

God bless Father Anton s.c.j.
